Blessed are the merciful, because God will show them mercy (Mt 5,7). Not so much the one is merciful who is merciful towards the poor or the orphan or the widow — this mercy is found also among those who do not know God. He is truly merciful who is merciful towards his enemy and does good to him, as it is written: "Love your enemies and do good to those who hate you" (Lk 6,27).

St John Chrysostom, Homilies on Matthew 9,7
